4) Subd. According to circular memo no 1601-1700/CRB 6-35-1 dated 9th Sept., 35, a candidate once appointed in an advertised vacancy under Note to Rule 15 of the Revised Rules becomes a Probationer in the unit and he should be continued in acting vacancies of the kind and class occurring in the unit until he is permanently absorbed.

5) The D.C. Bangalore reports that the following ministerial and executive appointments in his unit belong to one class under each head of service among the appointments to be filled up by advt but they do not seem to be of the same kind.

Instructions are sought for as to whether ~~the~~ ministerial vacancies of other ministerial appointments referred to by him. Similarly, instructions are also sought in the case of executive appts.

7) According to the circular memo dated 9th Sept 35 referred to, a candidate should be continued and finally only absorbed in vacancies of the kind and class. In this view, a candidate appointed as Dafter band in one class cannot be continued in vacancies other than those of Dafter bands such as Stroffs, Depot Mutsaddis though belonging to ministerial service because they are different kinds of appointments. Similarly, a Bill-collector in executive service cannot be continued in appointments other than those of Bill-collectors. In some cases, this is otherwise inevitable on account of variations in the qualifications required for these posts. For ministerial appointments, the qualification required is either a pass in middle school examination or S.S.L.C according to the pay of the appointment. In the case of executive appointments, too, the qualification required may similarly vary, and, in some cases technical qualification may also be necessary. In these circs, a candidate once appointed in an advertised vacancy and thrown out subsequently owing to cessation of appt. should be continued only in vacancies of the same kind as in the class.

8) The important point for consideration in this case is the question of qualification. Once the candidate appointed in one kind vacancy of one kind possesses the qualification required for another kind of appointment in the same class, there can however be no objection to his continuance in a vacancy of another kind in the same class, provided that those appointments are not governed by any special Rules. This course will also be otherwise in accordance with the spirit of the Recruitment Rules.

9) The D.C. may perhaps be informed as above, and a copy of this reply sent to all unit officers for purposes of guidance.

With reference to your letter No.1431 dated 29/30-8-35 issuing instructions that a candidate in an advertised vacancy becomes a probationer in the unit and that he should be continued in subsequent acting vacancies of the kind and class, occurring in the unit, until he is permanently absorbed, I have the honor to state that for all vacancies for which there are no approved lists two registers have been prescribed under the present rules, one for ministerial and another for executive. The marginally noted vacancies are being entered in the above registers. Although the vacancies referred to in the margin belong to one class, they do not seem to be of the same kind. I therefore request to be informed whether a candidate appointed as Daftaband has, if his appointment ceases to be continued and absorbed in a similar vacancy viz., Daftaband, or in any of the vacancies referred to under the head 'MINISTERIAL' and a Bill Collector in a similar vacancy viz., Bill Collector or in any one of the vacancies referred to under the head 'EXECUTIVE'.

MINISTERIAL:-
1. Daftaband on Rs.13
